CASE STUDY

This year, Hilti Australia was named 'Best of the Best' in Aon Hewitt's Best Employer accreditation program. This honour was earned through Hilti's leadership commitment to their people and the development of a compelling business strategy that is reflected in HR practice. In this case study session, hear about how Hilti employees understand their value in organisational strategy. Learn how Hilti has built a high-performance and high-engagement corporate culture that champions other organisations.

Jan Pacas, managing director, Hilti Australia

10:00am THE FUTURE OF THE HR PROFESSION - HR'S EVOLUTION FROM FUNCTION FULFILMENT TO STRATEGIC BUSINESS PARTNER

INDUSTRY COMMENTARY

The role of the HR professional is evolving. Strides have been made to promote HR from a personnel function to part of overall business strategy but for HR professionals to be viewed as real business partners, they must be able to provide advice that will improve organisational capability. In this session, hear from an experienced HR leader on how the role of HR is changing and how you can add value to your organisation within your role.

Richard Laidlaw, general manager, human resources – commercial property, Stockland

10:45am Refreshments & networking break

11:30am POWERING GREAT PERFORMANCE: THE ESSENTIALS OF AN EFFECTIVE HR TEAM

This dynamic session will uncover how Foxtel has worked with the business to drive culture change and improved performance.

Justin Miles, general manager HR, Fonterra ANZ

1:00pm Networking lunch in the Expo Hall

2:00pm TERMINATIONS: DEALING WITH PERFORMANCE, REDUNDANCY AND BAD FITS

LEGAL UPDATE

Terminating an employee's employment should be done carefully. Before deciding to terminate someone's employment make sure you understand your obligations under their employment contract, award or agreement.

This session examines the legal hazards associated terminating the employment relationship and provides a road map for best practices on the following complex issues:

- Preparing the proof for termination
- Understanding the legal obligations to the employee
- Issuing genuine redundancies
- Addressing Unfair Dismissal claims
- Dealing with Bad Fits: When Employers and Employees Collide

Joydeep Hor, managing principal, People + Culture Strategies

2:45pm EMPOWERING EMPLOYEES THROUGH ONLINE LEARNING

In the first decade of this new millennium the world market for e-learning grew over 2600% and if anything, growth today is accelerating. Moreover, e-learning is developing and changing as fast as it is growing. As we enter the new decade we see many new technologies emerging; we see changes in the way e-learning is delivered; we see changes in how, when and where people learn. This session will examine the key factors behind the rise of e-learning and provide a futuristic perspective on new technologies that will shape e-learning over the coming decade. Explore:

- The factors behind the explosion in e-learning since 2000
- Mobile learning – What does it mean and how will we use it?
- Social learning – What is it and how might it form part of a learning strategy?
- The emergence of serious gaming – Isn't that an oxymoron?

Tim Legge, CEO, Learning Seat

3:30pm Refreshments & networking break

4:15pm LEADING WITH EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE

WORKSHOP

This session explores raw emotional ability in four dimensions – recognising, using, understanding and managing, and their impact on behaviour and performance. It looks at a set of emotional skills both experiential and strategic. The session explores:

- The Four Branch Model (MSCEIT)
- Pragmatic wrap of assessing ability
- Problem solving, working with emotions

Jim Grant, founding partner, Dattner Grant

5:00pm Networking drinks for all attendees in the Expo Hall

8:00am Registration & Expo Hall opens

9:00am WELCOME & OPENING REMARKS FROM THE CHAIR

9:15 am HR AS AN ETHICAL COMPASS

EXPERT COMMENTARY

Unethical conduct in the workplace is a growing concern for employers and as a number of recent high-profile cases have shown, misconduct can cause significant damage to an organisation's reputation and public trust. Creating an honest, ethical workplace is at the top of the corporate agenda in 2012 and HR has a crucial role to play. In this session, gain fresh insight into how to set the ethical tone in your workplace. Explore:

- Communicating organisational values clearly and visibly
- Fostering an open working environment where people feel comfortable speaking out
- Gaining power and executive support for HR to push accountability at all levels

Petrina Coventry, chief HR officer, Santos Limited

10:00am IMPACT LEADERSHIP – THE ROLE OF LEADERSHIP CAPABILITY IN TRANSLATING HR STRATEGY TO EXECUTION

CASE STUDY

An essential success factor in implementing HR strategies is to have a high degree of leadership capability that can turn abstract concepts into real and actionable outcomes. The effectiveness of leaders, their alignment with business strategy and their ability to grow and develop internal talent are critical in today's competitive telecom industry. In this valuable session, learn the Optus strategic approach to leadership development. Focus on:

- Engaging leaders to reinforce corporate values and culture
- Aligning business objectives with talent management
- Identifying top talent to lead initiatives

Vaughan Paul, HR director, Optus

10:45am Refreshments & networking break

11:30am REAPING THE BENEFITS OF RTO PARTNERSHIPS

PANEL DISCUSSION

When organisations partner with a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) to allow internal trainers to deliver accredited training, it allows the training material to be developed in a way that is company specific. This means that company documentation including policies and procedures, as well as confidential information that cannot be made available to an external organisation, can be embedded into the material, making it relevant for the participants. Leadership Success, an RTO, has entered into such partnerships with a number of organisations and will present their perspective and experiences as an RTO in such arrangements. Two of the organisations that have partnered with Leadership Success to deliver accredited training, The Hills Shire Council and GE Capital Finance Australasia Pty Ltd will also present on their experiences.

Leonie Curtis-Kempnich, CEO, Leadership Success Pty Ltd
Michelle Coleman, assistant manager of workforce strategy & business improvement, Hills Shire Council
Gian Carotta, learning & development leader, GE Capital Australasia

12:15pm CLOSING THE TALENT GAP

EXPERT COMMENTARY

A sound talent strategy starts with a clear picture of the business outcomes you expect and defining the talent you will need to achieve the outcomes. In this session, talent management provider DDI will reveal how to:

- Pinpoint current and future business drivers
- Define how success will be measured
- Identify gaps in the quality and quantity of talent required to execute your business drivers
- Assess strengths and weaknesses in your current talent management systems and capabilities
- Deliver a strategy aimed at closing your talent gaps

Bruce Watt, managing director, DDI Australia

1:00pm Networking lunch in the Expo Hall

1:30pm GRAND PRIZE DRAW IN EXPO HALL

2:00pm HOW HR CAN DRIVE ORGANISATIONAL SUCCESS

In this case study, hear from Fuji Xerox on how they are managing their best asset, their people, in driving innovation and financial revenue.

- Defining engagement and understanding why it matters
- HR as a driver of performance
- Communication pathways
- Perfecting HR structures, operations and design

Beth Winchester, general manager human resources, Fuji Xerox

2:30 ON-BOARDING BEST PRACTICES: ENHANCING ENGAGEMENT WITH THE EMPLOYEE ON DAY ONE

Making a new employee to an organisation or location feel welcome and comfortable has proven to be a great retention tool. In this session, learn top tips for on-boarding new hires to ensure their assimilation into the new company and their overall success within their role. Explore:

- Articulating the organisation's mission, vision, values – The role of a company ambassador
- Choosing a buddy or mentor
- Creating a sense of belonging and inclusion for the new employee
- Encouraging participation in corporate culture
- Assessing performance – Setting weekly and monthly targets
- Ensuring open and frequent communication

Ronán Carolan, human resources director, Sanofi

3:00pm BUILDING SUCCESS AND PERFORMANCE ON STRONG FOUNDATIONS - THE IMPORTANCE OF GETTING THE BASICS RIGHT

POWERHOUSE SESSION

Brennon Dowrick is one of Australia's most successful gymnasts. He has represented Australia at two Olympic Games, three Commonwealth Games and seven World Championships and was Australia's first ever gymnastics Commonwealth Games Gold Medallist in 1990, a feat he repeated in 1994. In this unique session, learn from an Olympian the skills needed to:

- Gain skills in leadership coaching
- Understand the long-term efforts needed to reach desired outcomes
- Appreciate the importance of the process needed to achieve goals

Brennon Dowrick

3:30pm Conference concludes & close of Expo Hall

11:15am Welcome to the Directors Forum from the Chair

11:30am LEADING STRATEGIES FOR GAINING TOP MANAGEMENT SUPPORT FOR YOUR HR INITIATIVES

EXPERT COMMENTARY

HR directors need the support of senior management to drive people strategies and organisational change that is effective and lasting. So how can HR gain management support for their ideas? This session provides strategies to gain greater credibility with the C-Suite when pitching new initiatives. Explore:

- Understanding the business
- Understanding the drivers of value
- Speaking the language of ROI
- Being strategic across business units
- Thinking like the CEO
- Measuring and reporting performance

Janine Stewart, group executive, people & culture, Perpetual

12:15pm CREATING A COMPELLING, AUTHENTIC AND RELEVANT EMPLOYEE VALUE PROPOSITION

1:00pm Private luncheon reception for Directors Forum delegates – The Deck Restaurant, Luna Park Sydney

2:00pm THE CHANGE MANAGEMENT JOURNEY – UNIFYING CORPORATE PROCESSES, SYSTEMS & CULTURES POST-ACQUISITION

CASE STUDY

Fifty per cent of executives believe that organisational cultural differences are the main cause of failure during a merger or acquisition. When managing an M&A, a company must put a strategy in place to define the culture and unify the workforce without jeopardising the value of the newly-acquired business. There are a series of steps and strategies the leadership team should take to manage the process and various tools that can be used to define the culture of the company post-acquisition. Explore:

- Assessing the problem and identifying goals
- Communicating effectively across the newly merged workforce
- Maximising assets and building accountability and trust

Steve Reid, general manager HR – specialists & support functions, Vodafone Hutchison Australia

2:45pm MANAGING THE COMPLEXITIES OF PSYCHOLOGICAL WORKERS' COMPENSATION CLAIMS

Psychological injury claims are now a significant driver of workers' compensation costs. Work factors leading to claims for psychological injury include performance management issues, poor management skills of supervisors, conflict with colleagues/management, high workload and poor job fit. Employers must take a more proactive approach to managing these issues to mitigate the risk of psychological injury. Marsh will discuss practical strategies that employers should consider in managing this type of people risk.

4:15pm SKIRTING THE PIPELINE: THE CALL FOR GENDER DIVERSITY AMONG THE C-SUITE

Despite individual corporate initiatives and guidelines being in place for the ASX Top 200 companies, the federal government has decided not enough is being done – and not enough is being achieved – in terms of advancement of women and minorities in the Australian workforce. This session aims to educate organisations in their quest for more diverse work environments. Not because it is the right thing to do - but because it makes economic sense in terms of skill shortages, increased productivity and levels of innovation and customer and client strategies.

Maureen Frank, founder & CEO, Emberin

5:00pm Networking drinks function for all attendees in the Expo Hall

Attendees are encouraged to visit exhibitor booths and get their Expo Passports stamped. Passports completed by 1pm on Day 2 are eligible to be included in our grand prize draw. The prize will be awarded at 1:30pm on Day 2. The winner must be present to collect their prize.

11:15am Opening remarks from the Directors Forum Chair

11:30am CLOSING THE EXECUTION GAP - THE ROLE OF HR IN DRIVING EFFECTIVE ORGANISATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

CASE STUDY

The major challenge facing HR departments when implementing strategy is persuading boards and senior management that the organisation's people management initiatives are adding value. In this case study, hear how Amcor is managing their best asset - their people - to drive innovation and maximising financial revenue.

Lisa Eccleston, group general manager, human resources, Amcor Australasia

12:15pm NEGOTIATING & MANAGING INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES

A lack of industrial relations knowledge has compounded the number of industrial disputes currently. However, many disputes could be resolved before they escalate if HR was properly trained and experienced in these sensitive areas. Reaching compromises that are acceptable to both parties takes expertise, understanding and experience.

This session aims to provide solutions to implement toward improving employee relations, planning and implementing workplace reform, preventing, managing and resolving industrial disputes, negotiating enterprise agreements and advocacy.

Professor Paul Gollan, Department of Business & Economics, Macquarie University

1:00pm Networking lunch in the Expo Hall

Attendees are encouraged to visit exhibitor booths and get their Expo Passports stamped. Passports completed by 1pm on Day 2 are eligible to be included in our grand prize draw. The prize will be awarded at 1:30pm on Day 2. The winner must be present to collect their prize.

1:30pm Grand Prize Draw in the Expo Hall

2:00pm THE HEALTH OF AUSTRALIA'S AGEING WORKFORCE AND ITS IMPLICATIONS FOR EMPLOYERS

EXPERT COMMENTARY

The Baby Boomer Bulge is working its way through the system with the first boomers officially hitting retirement age in 2010. Much has been written and discussed regarding the impact of the ageing workforce on the competitiveness of Australia against emerging economies with average ages 20 years below ours. One relatively untapped strategy which can mitigate the risk to Australia's future is the successful management of the health of Australia's older workers. This session will explore the Health and Productivity Management solution to this pressing issue.

2:45pm EFFECTIVE SOCIAL MEDIA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- Understand HR's role in the development and execution of a social media strategy
- Clarifying ownership rights to postings
- The role of social media in employee communication
- Defining the consequences of inappropriate use
- Understanding the risks of confidentiality issues, defamation or data protection
- Best practices on accessing or restricting usage at work
- Leveraging employer branding and employee engagement through an effective social media framework
